

My name is Allison. I live in NYC with my dog Layla. I serve as a director in my family business, running children’s sleep-away camps in Upstate NY, where I live in the summers. I lost my father last year to a rare disease, and am so honored to be running my 2nd NYC Marathon (and will by my 3rd marathon) with NORD.

One thing people would be surprised to know about me is that I teach group fitness classes called Surfset, which is a surf inspired workout.

When I am running, I change songs out on my big playlist all the time, but the one that always stays is “Let’s Go Crazy” by Prince.
